

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

NEW FACULTY QUICKSTART

LSU Libraries

Resources for teaching and research

Thursday, October 22, 2026 · Zoom

Shared by LSU Libraries. Sarah Simms, Student Success & Strategic Initiatives Librarian, and Allen LeBlanc, Experiential Learning & Makerspace Librarian, presented the October 2026 New Faculty Quickstart and shared these resources. The session recording is posted with this handout on the LTC New Faculty Quickstarts page.

Getting started

LSU Libraries website

The LSU Libraries home page.

lib.lsu.edu

Information for New Faculty

Library basics for new faculty: borrowing, interlibrary loan, electronic delivery and reservable faculty carrels.

guides.lib.lsu.edu/c.php?g=1063560&p=7734622

Support for your research

Research Support

An overview of the library's research services. Scroll down the page for the full list.

lib.lsu.edu/researchersupport

Research Tools

Tools organized by research task, from brainstorming to analyzing and managing data, plus campus software labs, VLab, Tigerware and equipment checkout.

guides.lib.lsu.edu/researchtools

Data Management Plans

Help writing a data management plan: funder requirements, DMPTool, storage and archiving, and consultations with the Research Data Management Librarian.

guides.lib.lsu.edu/data

Sharing and measuring your work

LSU Scholarly Repository

Openly accessible LSU scholarship. The Author Corner covers how to submit your work, policies and FAQs.

repository.lsu.edu

Research Impact & Metrics

Guidance on using research metrics responsibly, with pages on author profiles and journal metrics.

guides.lib.lsu.edu/metrics